DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 21-40, drawn to an article.

Group II, claim(s) 41, drawn to a method.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The technical feature present in both groups is the article of claim 21. However, this technical feature is taught within the reference of Machol (US PN. 5, 719, 705).

Machol specifically teaches an optical article (Col. 1, lines 38-45) comprising a transparent substrate (Col. 1, lines 59-60) having a main front and rear faces (Figures) and the substrate is made from materials such as polycarbonates (Col. 3, lines 5-6) which according to applicants' publication, corresponds to their claimed organic glass (publication all, esp. 0031-0035, claim 25). Also, Machol teaches that one of the main faces comprises a multi-layer antireflection coating (Figures, title) wherein the coating comprises at least two high refractive index layers (Col. 2, lines 30-32) which are taught to preferably be sub-stoichiometric titanium oxide (Col. 5, lines 25-40). Further, although the reference does not necessarily teach applicants' titanium oxide layers being "visible absorbing" or the characteristics of reducing visible Tv by at least 10% compared to an article without the layers, as it is seen, the layers and structure are the same as applicants and therefore, one of ordinary skill would reasonably expect them to function in the same manner. As such, one of ordinary skill would reasonably expect the applicants' limitations to be inherent within Machol.

As the applicants' technical feature is taught within Machol, the examiner notes that unity of invention between Groups I and II is lacking and thereby, the lack of unity restriction requirement is proper.

A telephone call was made to Mark Wilson on March 9, 2009 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made as the applicants' representative requested a written restriction.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
